Privacy Statement

This Central Applications Form has been designed by the Central Applications Committee.

The information required is necessary so that applications for children who wish to be enrolled into one of the Catholic primary schools in Newbridge Parish under the patronage of the Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin can be processed.

Completed application forms may be submitted to the Parish Office or received via email at capps@newbridgeparish.net.

The completed application forms are stored in a locked filing cabinet in St. Conleth's Parish Office or in digital form via the email address capps@newbridgeparish.net. Completed application forms are collected for processing by the CAC prior to meeting dates.

Forms for applications to enrol in classes during the school year are collected from the Parish Office prior to CAC meetings during term-time.

Forms for applications to enrol in all classes for the next school year are collected from the Parish Office after the close of the respective admissions windows prior to the year of enrolment.

Please see schools' websites for specific dates annually. Any forms received prior to the admissions windows for enrolment for the next school year will be deemed invalid. Any forms received after the admissions windows for enrolment for the next school year will be deemed late applications.

Forms are not copied by the Parish Office.
